Finding Your Yes at Central Community

Yes to Worship

At Central Community we provide opportunities for people to participate in worship by utilizing their gifts and talents. A Yes to providing a welcoming worship experience makes a difference in proclaiming the gospel in our community.

Yes to Partnerships

Central Community partners with the following organizations as our way of building bridges into the community. Opportunities to serve our local food pantry, connect with our senior community, and mentor our youth are just a few ways your Yes can make a difference.

Alliance of Churches

Senior Center

Shell Knob School

Yes to Servant Ministry

Central Community has established opportunities for people to say yes to servant ministry. Opportunities in our thrift store, garden, food distribution, and day care ministries provide a great impact in our community from a simple Yes to hands on serving.
